J. G. & R. H. Winn,
Mt. Sterling, Kentucky.

A rejoinder of the ADVOCATE said: "John in the jail and to him he said, 'I was twenty-two year old, that was the first time I was ever in jail. I was satisfied he would have been to hang and the master as it was now is, is between him and the Lord.' This said, he said I have to say to-day, I will ask you to call again to-morrow, and I will be there." "As I am not in the proper spirit for talking, His choice of preachers of the colored pastors is fully counseled with him. There is no mistake about his being in earnest in preparing for death and that indifference displayed on trial has been changed into the greatest interest for his soul."

The unavailing of the monument erected to the memory of Gen. Roger Hanson will take place at Lexington to-day. Mrs. I. F. Calk and Mrs. Adela Chiuu, of this place, sisters of Mrs. Gen. Hanson, will be among the large number who will attend from here. The venerable ex-Chief Justice, B. J. Peters, Mrs. Hanson's only surviving brother, had hoped to be present but he finds himself too feeble to stand the fatigue of the day and the crowd.

"I have taken one bottle of Heed's Sarsaparilla and it has been of benefit to me"

MRS. MILTON MCCLURE,
CAMARGO, KY.

TOO MUCH MEAN WHISKY

On Saturday evening, Jan. 10, Young, Jr., son of Judge John D. Young of O'Learyville, became engaged in a difficulty with his cousin, Phila Fassett, who lived at Flat Creek. The two young men had been in O'Learyville all day, and it is said both were drinking. At the time of the killing Fassett was sitting in front of a store on Main street, opposite the Hotel, when Young came up his back and struck him on the head with a hatchet. What he was doing is a little doubtful, but it was not for the purpose of raising a difficulty, does not appear. A quarrel ensued and from words they came to blows, during which Young cut Fassett on the face, the blade of the hatchet glancing from the bone and sinking into the carotid artery. The result resulted in a few minutes. The death reports as to the difficulty are very conflicting, but the above is what we have been able to gather from what seemed reliable sources. The whole case of this difficulty can be summed up in one word—whiskey. Both young men are highly connected, and it is difficult to tell which family was more prostrated by the terrible affair.

Mr. John W. Wilson, who has had charge of the Merchant's Hotel here for the past two years, was in Mt. Sterling last week and closed a trade to take charge of a hotel in the Tyler-Apperson block there, which will be called the Commercial Hotel. Mr. Wilson and wife are among our best citizens, and we regret to lose them. We recommend them to the citizens of Mt. Sterling as straightforward, upright citizens, who understand the hotel business.—Flemingsburg Gazette.

Mr. Wilson will be here in time to open the Commercial Hotel in due shape by August 1.

Mr. Elgus Northcutt went to Lexington last Thursday, to be present at the marriage of his cousin, Miss Dora Sleds, to Prof. H. B. Robinson. Mr. Robinson is pastor of the Somerset church in this county, and is an able divine. Mrs. Robinson is a daughter of Mr. Joseph Sleds, of Lexington, and is very popular among her acquaintances, and a very intelligent young lady, and Mr. Robinson should feel proud of the gem he has won. The Advocate extends congratulations and wishes them all the happiness and prosperity that wedded life is heir to.

He is to be prosecuted for the fraud.

SUCCESSFUL

Was the Bicycle Meet at Oak View Park.

The Crowd Large and Enthusiastic.

And Some Very Good Performances.

ABOUT 600 IN ATTENDANCE.

The bicycle meet at Oak View Park, on the Fourth, was a grand success in every particular. All of the contestants for the various prizes were home boys, which made it more interesting for the spectators. Nearly every one present had some relative or friend entered in some of the races, and cheered him accordingly.

There are some good bicyclists in this city, and it was hard to tell who would be so lucky as to carry off the prize or prizes. Wm. VanAntwerp was looked upon by many as a winner, and he did not deceive them, winning every race he started in, in fine style, and with plenty of speed in reserve. He surely has in him the makings of a great wheelman, and will some day rank among the first in the State.

This is the second Bicycle Tournament ever held in this county, and such success has been meted out to the promoters on each of these occasions that it is more than likely that some of our enterprising business men will arrange many more tournaments for the entertainment of our people. Below we give a condensed report of each race:

The one mile novice race had seven to face the starter, and it was a pretty race from start to finish. It was won by Rudolph Baum, with Chas. F. Trumbo second and Wm. Vanarsdell third. Time 2:56.

The second race was one-fourth mile dash, with nine starters: Wm. VanAntwerp, first, Cecil Howell second, and Newt Bright third. Time 3:43 seconds.

The half-mile handicap, for boys was won by Clarence Madden, with Harry Welch second and Willie Tipton third. Time 1:26.

The one mile scratch for the Montgomery County Championship was won by Wm. VanAntwerp in the very slow time of 3:21. Geo. C. Eastin and Cecil Howell finished second and third respectively. Geo. C. Eastin won the slow race of 100 yards.

The two mile handicap was won by Wm. VanAntwerp, with Geo. C. Eastin second and Cecil Howell third. Time 5:55.

The half-mile scratch was won by Wm. VanAntwerp, with Cecil Howell second and Lindsey Vanarsdell third. Time 1:16.

W. H. Strossman, Jr., won the 100 yard foot race in 12 seconds.

Roger Cornelison carried off the honors in the sack race and Harry Rogers in the potato race.

The mule race was won by Jas. H. Arnett.

Howard VanAntwerp made a trial quarter in 33 seconds.

NOTES.

The potato race was indeed a novel one.

Everybody in attendance seemed well-pleased with the afternoon's sport.

Charles Trumbo made a splendid showing, considering the time he has been riding.

Rudolph Baum made a splendid finish in the novice race. Oh, my; won't he drink soda water.

Clay Miller who is the pride of the hearts of the types in this city, grieved them very much by his non-appearance.

"Sleepy" Clark pulled too hard on the reins of his steed, and it reared up and fell over, spilling

"Sleepy" and somewhat damaging the track.

The race for the Championship of Montgomery County was very tame. None of them would set the pace, going the first half at a snail's pace, part of the time with their hands off the handle bars.

A certain young lady became so enthusiastic during the sixth race that she ascended to the top of the dash-board and tried very hard to get on top of the buggy, but it was a little too high. Guess the cause of her enthusiasm?

"Lo"

Why Vote For Hardin?

In the first place Gen. Hardin has received an unquestioned majority of the regular Democratic convention.

In the second place this convention came direct from the people and recorded their decision.

In the third place Gen. Hardin stands upon a platform which indorses the Democratic National administration of State affairs.

In the fourth place there is to be a thorough reorganization of the Democratic party as it passes into the hands of the younger members of this organization.

In the fifth place the failure of the Democrats in an election in November on a hard money platform will make it almost impossible for the hard money men of the Democratic party to secure the control of the Kentucky delegation to the next Democratic National Convention.

In the sixth place the failure to vote for Gen. Hardin is a vote for Mr. Bradley.

The lines of Mr. Bradley's campaign are well known. He will make the same speeches he made eight years ago and four years ago. Without presenting any remedies, he will allow the course of the Democratic party during the last generation. He will attack our charitable institutions, our school system, the management of the penitentiary, and every other department of State Government. These statements will be mere assertions, unsubstantiated by any facts in the record.

In view of these reasons, it seems incredible that any Democrat should for a moment consider giving a vote in behalf of the Republican ticket.

There is no issue between the two parties on the financial question, save this: While the Republican party is opposed to free coinage, its leaders are making vehement assaults upon the Democratic administration.

Had Mr. Reed and those for whom he speaks in Congress adopted the course suggested by Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Carlisle, the bond transaction of which we hear so much, would have been made at a saving of several millions of dollars. It was the obstinacy and partisanship of ex-Speaker Reed which defeated the bill authorizing low interest, long-time bonds, and which defeated the President either to suspend gold payments or accept the terms of the bond syndicate.

Nothing that has occurred within the Democratic party for thirty years has done so much to place it before the people as a progressive organization as the action of the late convention. That convention took more than one long step forward and the Evening Post makes a special plea for the people to support the party.

The Democratic majority should not only vote itself, but to do all within its power to bring to the polls every man who believes in a sound currency, a free trade, in economy in public affairs, and who is opposed to the paternalism of the Populist party.

The Democratic majority should be 40,000 but it will be nothing at all unless the stay at home vote can be brought to the polls.

Platinum in Demand.

As a result of the demand for platinum in electrical industries, the Russian mines are now exporting 7,300 pounds a year. The mines in the Ural district of Persia were actively worked as long as Russia could obtain platinum as money, but when the coinage was discontinued the price of platinum fell, the mines were closed, and were not opened again until recently.

CHAGRINDE

BY FORCE BILL TALK.

Republicans in Doubt

About Southern Gains.

Say Harrison's Personal Organ Is Damaging Their Chances.

A prominent Southern Republican who will, in all probability, be a delegate to the National Convention of his party, in conversation to-day said:

"I regret very much to see the Indianapolis Journal, ex-President Harrison's personal organ, engage in attempting to revive the Force Bill. I had hoped that that drastic measure had been buried for all times to come, but it seems I was mistaken. Just so long as the Republicans of the North like Harrison and Reed, keep meddling in our affairs and threaten the South with negro domination, just so long will our section of the country remain solid.

"It is too bad that ex-President Harrison has not outgrown his prejudice against the Southern people. The editorial in a recent issue of the Indianapolis Journal, stating that if the Republicans came into power again they will pass another Force Bill, has done more to injure our prospects in the South than anything that could have happened to us. Already the Journal is trying to crawl back and say that it was misunderstood; that they did not want to interfere with the progress of the South by raising the Force Bill issue again.

"Mr. Harrison will be a strong candidate next year, and a good many of the ex-officio holders who will be delegates to the convention will, of course be for him, expecting that in the event of his election that they will fall back into their old positions, or getting something better. But I want to say right now that unless Mr. Harrison gives assurance to the country that he is done with Force Bills and will not recommend any such vicious legislation as he did during the Fifty-first Congress. I say that unless he does something of that kind, he may as well hang his head on the weeping willow tree, and this applies equally as well to the other gentlemen aspiring for the nomination."—Washington Cor. Louisville Times.

Napoleon vs. Shakespeare.

We have always supposed that "the gott in the neck" was a slang phrase of recent origin. It is not, however, and the great Napoleon is the originator of it. It was thus wise:

"Prussia will never wear your collar!" cried the Prussian King.

"I will feed my cuffs, however, retorted Bonaparte, 'and what will be more ridiculous, it will get them in the neck.'"

That it will be seen there is nothing new under the sun. Napoleon takes the glory for everything—except what Shakespeare best him to.

Punishment For Intoxication in Denmark.

The police in Denmark have a curious way of dealing with the drunk and incapable found in the streets. They summon a cab and place the patient inside it, then drive to the station, where he gets sober; then, some, where he arrives sober and the agents never leave him till they have seen him safe in the family bosom. Then the cabman makes his charge, and the police surgeon makes his, and the agents make their own claim for special duty, and this bill is presented to the host of the establishment where the culprit took his last overhauling glass. The publicans, however, have in several towns protected against this system. They say the proofs are often insufficient and the police surgeons too summary in their examinations; further, that many notorious evil-doers sham drunk in order to get the landlord in trouble. They therefore claim that they shall have their own doctors to examine certain cases and defend the publican interest—"Tit-Bits."

A writer in Farm, Field and Fireside does not believe that the horse will be shelved by the wheel, and hopes that in the future the horse will sell for $250, while the wheel will sell for $25, then it will be fashionable to have the former rather than the latter. This writer would encourage breeding for that horseman's millennium, which is hardly good advice to give his readers, as the horse has not the wheel alone to contend with, but the many inventions designed to take, and in fact, taking the place of the unnumbered horses for traction and transportation purposes. One of the latest of these is the country electric railway, projected at Lancaster, Ohio, which will run a distance of 15 miles right through the country, with a shorter branch of six miles. Connected with that passenger car will be the produce and truck car. These routes will undoubtedly pay from the first day they are built. Farmers along the line are quite jubilant over the situation. They can now go to the towns and transact their business at a less expense than it costs to feed their horses, and ride all the way in a comfortable covered car, getting on and off at their various doors along the line. This is a beginning of the electric transit system which is to supplant our country road methods of travel by team. Another method, proved practicable, and soon to be largely in vogue, is that of light, pneumatic-tired vehicles, propelled at first speed by vapor engines. Then the future horse-breeder must compete, probably, with the automobile maker that inventors are hard at work perfecting, and of which successful competitive road trials have been just given. In view of these things, we fall to see how the price of the horse can be expected to advance materially.

Frank Melbourne, the Western "rain king," whose services were in demand three years ago, says the whole thing was a humbug. He has made a fortune in the rain business and spent it.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Railroad Commissioner.
We are authorized to announce John C. Wood as a candidate for Railroad Commissioner, for the Eastern District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Republican party.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor—F. WAT HADIN, Of Mercer County.
For Lieutenant Governor—R. S. TYLER, Of Fulton County.
For Auditor—LUKE C. NORMAN, Of Boone County.
For Attorney General—W. J. HENDRICK, Of Fleming County.
For Treasurer—R. C. FORD, Of Clay County.
For Secretary of State—H. S. HALE, Of Graves County.
For Com. of Land Office—GEORGE B. SWANSON, Of Wolfe County.
For Commissioner of Agriculture—JOS. B. NALL, Of Jefferson County.
For Sup. of Public Instruction—ED. PORTER THOMPSON, Of Owen County.
For Railroad Commissioner, 5th District—G. E. KILLEN, Of Carlisle.
For Representative, 9th Legislative District—W. F. HORTON, Of Montgomery and Menifee.

Gov. Brown will not be a candidate for U. S. Senator. He has written a card to this effect to the Democracy of the State and now those persons who think the government could not do without them as Senators are working like turks for the votes that would have gone to Gov. Brown. The people of Kentucky will be amused at the different arguments which will be offered by the respective candidates, but in selecting the man to represent them the people will consider qualifications as to heart, mind and industry. To fill the bill he must be more than an orator, a working senator with a well trained mind is indispensable in the make-up of a senator.

Russell Tabor, candidate for the Republican nomination for the Legislature, was in the city Monday. Already his mind is somewhat cloudy. He says he may live in Menefee and then again his home may be in Montgomery. The one thing he knows is that he lives beyond State and has aspirations for the Legislature. If he really does live in Menefee, he is after Dr. Dorsey to trade him Menefee's five votes for Montgomery's thirteen. Russell is naturally a kind hearted fellow, but for the life of us we can't see why he has such black politics hanging to him.

Republicans of Rowan.

The Republicans of Rowan county held a convention July 1st to instruct delegates to the Senatorial and Legislative Conventions, which meets at Morehead July 10. They made no instructions for Senator, but instructed for M. F. Fouch for the Legislature.

Gen. P. Watt Hurdin, Democratic candidate for Governor has returned from his residence place at Big Stone Gap and is in the state for the campaign. The Commercial pictures and Billy Bradley with all his wind can't keep him from rolling up a sum enough Kentucky Democratic majority of forty-five thousand.

Unconfirmed advices from Havana say that Gen. Martinez Campos has been stricken with yellow fever. Campos' son, who is said to have been captured by insurgents, is also reported to be dying of the yellow plague.

The Kentucky Baptist has been sold to Dr. Cranfill, of the Texas Baptist. It will hereafter be issued at Waco, Texas, and there will be Kentucky edition as well as Texas. Rev. C. E. Nash will continue as editor of Kentucky.

The Populist Convention met in Louisville on Thursday, named the Committee and adjourned till Friday when it again convened and finished its labors by 1:45 p. m.
The officers except for Governor had to be forced on the receipts.
The platform declares for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, regardless of international agreement; for the abolishment of the national banking system and all banks of issue, and the substitution of the Treasury notes, which shall be a full legal tender for all debts both public and private; for a constitutional amendment whereby laws may be enacted and repealed by a direct vote of the people, regardless of legislative and judicial powers, and declaring against the recent decision of the Court of Appeals in the bank tax cases.

At the last meeting it was decided to nominate a candidate for the United States Senate, and Chas. S. Bates of Jefferson county, was declared the nominee of the party by acclamation. In accepting the empty honor which had been conferred upon him Mr. Bates made the only sensational declaration of the convention, alleging that market alone would force the money kings to release their grip upon the throat of the country, but they (the Populists) would be as ready to assert them with cartridge boxes as they had been at the ballot box. Mr. Bates' incoherent utterance fell flat and not a hand was lifted to applaud it.

During Friday morning's session a fight was won over the proposed adoption of a woman's suffrage plank, and Mrs. Josephine K. Henry and Miss Clara Clay made an earnest effort to bring the Populist into line with the Prohibitionists on this question. The majority of the delegates felt, however, that they were already burdened with too weighty a platform, and refused to take up the cause of the woman's suffrage.

Considerable difficulty was experienced in finding men who were willing to accept places on the ticket, and this fact in itself bespeaks the amount of confidence that the Populists have in their cause. Mr. Pettit, however, accepted the first place with alacrity, and pledged himself to a vigorous fight upon and for the principles enumerated in the platform.

KENTUCKY'S TOBACCO CROP.

The Prospect as Seen by Mr. Sam

P. Carr, of Carr & Dickinson.

of Richmond, Va.

WHAT HE THINKS OF IT.

"Well, Mr. Carr, I see you are back again. You have made a tour of most of the burley counties of Kentucky, and what have you to say this time?" was the query put by a Tribune reporter yesterday to Sam P. Carr, the well known commission merchant of Richmond, Va.

"My trip only extended through about one-third of the tobacco counties," said Mr. Carr, "but those counties represent about three-fourths of the burley growth of Kentucky. As I scattered myself a good deal and obtained information from every railroad brakeman, every cattle buyer, every hotel clerk and proprietor, in connection with every tenant and landlord; yes, even down to the good-natured old ladies of the farming district, as I traveled along Kentucky's costly turnpikes of high tolls, I think after striking an average from impartial judgment I might safely place the possible yield at 75 per cent. of a crop. I found the crop looking very well in daily, Montgomery, Clark and Bourbon. North of these counties, with the exception of a field here and there where local showers had refreshed the country, the growers looked more like January than June, and what convinces me the more fully that winter's rainfall and snows left very little moisture in the earth is that the springs are drying up and the creeks and ponds are so few that an alligator could hardly survive a week."

"Well, what's your analysis of the situation? Are you still hopeful of higher prices?"

"Let me put myself on record right here. Never in the history of burley tobacco did it ever have half the chance. In 1887 Europe was full of Virginia and burley tobacco. We had two years' supply without adding a single plant. Our manufacturers very well supplied also, the high quality and low prices justifying them in laying in for future wants. What is it today? The last two years of stagnation and industrial famine has kept every man of means and produce close to shore. Manufacturers have little ahead upon an average, except a few of the most sagacious who kept posted on the quality of the last crop. The country is barren, planters mostly sold out, and of all my trips I have seen found as little bright and smooth red tobacco."

"What will those manufacturers do who use the brighter grades of cutting and smoking plug? You know heavy waxy red will not do for these purposes."

"Of course not. The whole street and long of it, those who have not already laid in partial supplies are pretty badly off. Don't keep on impressing you that there is not over one-fourth of bright or smooth tobacco to run the trade of the country? There is none, as you know, lapping over from previous crops. As I told you in my last interview, the crop is certainly six weeks late. This will bring maturity after the frost period, and that means cutting the bulk of the crop in a green state, for the tenant does not wait for frost."—Chattanooga Tribune.

The advertisement of Prof. Goodwin's school for boys appears in this issue. The design of this school is to prepare boys to enter the higher classes in college or to give them a thorough business education. Prof. Goodwin has been seven years ago one of the most sagacious who kept posted on the quality of the last crop. The country is barren, planters mostly sold out, and of all my trips I have seen found as little bright and smooth red tobacco."

VERSUVIUS AND ETNA.

Are Again In Eruption and Towns

Are In Danger.

NAPLES, July 6.—The crater of Mt. Etna is again pouring forth fire, smoke and lava. Mount Versuvius is also in state of eruption and is reported to be in a worse condition than Mt. Etna. The town of Reclinal, South Italy, built over the ruins of Herculaneum, is threatened. Villages in the vicinity of both volcanoes are believed to be in danger.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Sales on our market for the week last closed amount to 3974 hhds., with receipts for the same period 3292 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1 amount to 105,580 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1894 on our market to this date amount to 105,997 hhds. We have had only two days of auction sales on our market this week and the offerings embraced 1779 hhds of burley tobacco. The fine grades of leaf both of the colony and red type continue firm at satisfactory prices, and common grades with high color, continue in demand without any tendency toward weakening in value, but the other grades of burley have not rallied from the decline which was reported last week, but to the contrary the symptoms of irregularity were rather more aggravated during the sales this week.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco 1894 crop:

Trash. (Dark or damaged tobacco) $1.50 to $2.75.
Common colony trash, $3.00 to $3.75.
Medium to good colony trash, $3.75 to $5.50.
Common lugs, not colony, $2.50 to $4.00.
Common colony lugs, $4.00 to $5.50.
Medium to good colony lugs, $5.50 to $8.50.
Common to medium leaf $6.00 to $10.00.
Medium to good leaf, $10 to $15.00.
Good to fine leaf, $15 to $18.
Select waxy leaf, $18 to $28.00.
GLOVER & DUBRETT.

Home Comfort Wrought Iron Range.

A third car load has been received and they are going as fast as the other two. A large force of men in wagons have kept every man of means and produce close to shore. Manufacturers have little ahead upon an average, except a few of the most sagacious who kept posted on the quality of the last crop. The country is barren, planters mostly sold out, and of all my trips I have seen found as little bright and smooth red tobacco."

What Pleases Others Might Not Please You

In every instance, but what pleases an highly educated, up-to-date mechanical expert, who is thoroughly posted on the construction of bicycles, from a wheelman's standpoint, as well as that of a strictly high-grade machine, is a pretty good pointer to buyers who are in search of the best the market affords.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 15, 1895.

R. F. Maxwell, Mgr. Indiana Bicycle Co., City.

DEAR SIR—Referring to the Waverley bicycle which I bought of you a few weeks ago, I will candidly admit that I am delighted with it. My first impression was one of surprise at the ease and smoothness of its motion. It appears to be ample strong and substantial in construction and every one must admit that it is most graceful in appearance. I consider it a strictly high grade machine; otherwise I should not have bought it. It is all you claim it to be. Wishing you well merited success, I remain yours truly,

Mt. Sterling's New School.

The Mt. Sterling Female Seminary, with Professor J. L. Tait, of Portland, Oregon, as principal, is already a certainty. On last Monday Professor Tait, accompanied by Dr. W. C. Taylor, of the Frankfort Baptist church, entered our city with the view of prospecting for a school for young ladies and before the day was past they had decided this was the location for such a school, and Professor Tait went to work to see how many students could be secured, and by Saturday evening he was fully persuaded that he would have a large and flourishing school. He has rented property on North Mayville street, No. 88, formerly occupied by Harris Institute. It is a large brick structure centrally located, which will serve to accommodate the students and boarders for the first year. Professor Tait has fitted himself specially for school work and has had an experience of more than ten years in the best schools of the country, and has the best of recommendation, both as a teacher and gentleman.
Mrs. Tait is also a trained teacher and will give her time to the school room, and the school will also have an additional number of experienced teachers.

The course of study will be Primary, Preparatory, Academic,
College Preparatory, Commercial and Shorthand.

The establishment of a school of this character is badly needed here and we are glad that we have a man fully equipped with an unlimited amount of industry with the matter in hand. Professor Tait is confident that the school will open in September without least on hundred pupils, which would guarantee, in a short time, new school buildings, and place Mt. Sterling to the front with other education at towns of the State.

Money for the Teachers.

I have received from the State Treasurer the entire amount due the teachers of this county and am very anxious to get it out of my hands.
I will call if the teachers holding claims will meet me in Mt. Sterling next Saturday or Monday in order that I may pay them.

THE ADVOCATE.

O. Sanders killed his wife at Mt. Sterling. They had been married only a few days, and he became jealous.

The United States Agricultural Department report shows that $700,000 of the appropriation was covered back into the Treasury.

A jury at Owensboro has given Mrs. Ingelhart a verdict of for $7,000 damages against the murderer of her husband.

Livingston county is complaining of scarcity of water. It hasn't rained there to amount to anything for eighteen months.

Dr. W. T. Chandler, of Campbellsville, while riding a bicycle, ran into a drove of hogs, and, falling, was seriously injured.

An ice war is on between Henderson dealers and the price is down to 25 cents per hundred, with prospects of it going to 12 1/2.

Four American consular officers have been sentenced at Hamburg, Germany, to long terms of imprisonment for forging American and other notes.

Peaches were selling for 10 cents a peck, and cherries for $1 a bushel, in Georgia last week. The fruit crop of the State is the largest ever known.

The much talked of electric street railway of Bowling Green is now an assured fact, and in the course of six days the cars will be in running order.

At Rome, Ill., a rejected lover blew up a house containing five women, three of whom were probably fatally injured. The fanatical lover was arrested.

Near Flemingsburg a little child of J. M. Plummer was terribly bitten in the face by a massive bulldog. The child is frightfully disfigured, but will probably recover.

The Moorhead-McClean Iron Company plant, at Pittsburgh, which is valued at $1,000,000, brought only $111,000 at the Sheriff's sale. Creditors of the company lose $800,000.

Gus Leob and his wife, Julia, Hebrew peddlers, were murdered in Harlan county, between Harlan Court-house and Harrogate, Tenn., by six masked men. Robbery was the only cause for the crime.

The two-year-old boy baby of Jeff Martin, of Powell county, found a large copperhead snake in the parlor and thinking it a plaything picked it up. The child had a narrow escape. The snake was killed.

A mob took Marshall E. Price from jail at Denton, Md., and swung him by the neck from the limb of a tree. Price had assaulted a little girl, and had just been granted a respite pending an appeal of his case.

A dividend of 1 1/2 per cent. was paid last year by the French Nord Railroad, probably the most profitable railroad in Europe. Its net revenue for 1894 was $18,856,265 on an outlay of capital of $302,804,540. It works 2,311 1/2 miles of road.

The tensile strength of iron at 400 degrees below zero is just twice what it is at sixty degrees above it. It will take a strain of fifty instead of thirty tons to the square inch, and equally curious results have come out as the elongation of metals under these conditions.

Electric cars have been prohibited on the road from Berlin to Charlestonburg. They would have passed by the Imperial Technical Institute, and experiments showed that the current for the railroad strongly affected all the apparatus in the building, so as to make delicate scientific observations experiments impossible.

An engineer has pointed out that one inch of rain falling upon an area of one square mile is equivalent to nearly 17,500,000 gallons, weighing 145,200,000 pounds of 72,000 tons. Assuming this water to have fallen from clouds about half a mile high, or say 3,000 feet above the earth, we have for the energy represented by it about 22,000 horse power. With steam-raising machinery working at the rate of consumption of two tons of coal per horse power per hour, it would take 200 gross tons of coal to raise the water represented by one inch of rain on a square mile to a assumed distance of 3,000 feet. As water of fact, rain often falls from clouds which are at a much greater height than 3,000 feet above the ground, so that the figures just given are quite conservative ones.

HE WANTED POSSESSION.

But the Old Tenants Were in the Way and Wouldn't Get Out.

"You told me the flat was in perfect condition," said the tenant, as he entered the agent's office. "I did," admitted the agent. "You said there was not an objectionable feature about it," continued the tenant.

"I admit it." "And that I was to have sole possession May 1."

"Quite right. You are living there now, aren't you?"

"Yes."

"Then what are you kicking about?"

"I believe I am the only one who pays rent for it," said the tenant, without noticing the last question.

"You are. But what?"

"You positively guarantee me complete possession of the premises, as I understand it?"

"We did."

"Then I wish you would oust the cockroaches. They claim privileges by right of priority of possession, but if they don't pay rent and have no lease I think the flat should be turned over to me."

"My dear sir—"

"That's all, I just wanted to let you know that there was a dispute between tenants, and you can't expect to keep both. They're neither guests nor friends of mine and I object to them more than I do to the janitor."

Interesting Courtship.

"Across the creek, to the clay bank, a colony of muskrats had made their burrows, and, before it became too dark, I had the pleasure of witnessing a muskrat courtship. The male, swelling his neck and striking the ground with his flattened tail, slowly approached the female, walking aside with a stiff, affected gait. He kept up a low murmuring monologue all the while, every now and then accentuating his speech with shrill squeaks and guttural grunts. The female seemed coy, and several times repulsed his advances, chasing him several feet away from the burrow, and then returning to the entrance, where she would re-sume her crouching posture until again put on the defense by his overtures and caresses. They kept this up for some time.

"The courting of the blue-bird is a charming spring sight. The little lover will perch a few inches away from his sweetheart, and attempt to bewitch her with the melody of his song. His low, soft warble is a delicious bit of love pleading, and ought to soften the most obdurate heart; but the female is coy and frouthy. He then comes nearer, and, slightly quivering his wings, bows in front of her, all the while pleading in an impassioned manner. He then erects himself, puffing out his breast and stalks in front of her. His song takes on a more virile strain. His boasts of his prowess in the fields of worm-hunting and meat-butchery; he turns his back to her and calls attention to his beautiful blue coat. Again he turns and points to the beauty of his scarlet vest. This last argument is generally effective.

"The wooing of the peacock is grotesque and bizarre. The cock deliberately selects his ground or place of exhibition and calls the female to admire him. Several males will select a 'stamping ground,' as it is locally termed, and will beat down the weeds and grass until the surface of the ground is perfectly smooth. They will then utter the most discordant shrieks and oaths until they have collected all the females about them. When they see that they have secured an audience they will commence the most extraordinary antics. First one male and then another will enter the arena. He will spread his tail to its greatest extent, and, holding his head far back between his wings, will execute a stiff-legged sarabande around the ring. Then, folding his tail and stretching out his neck, he will run at full speed about the arena. Standing in the center of the ring he will slightly elevate his tail and beat the ground with his feet. He does not fail to point to every one of his many points of beauty. He even calls attention to his voice, doubtless very pleasing to pea-fowl ears, however discordant to ours."—Oxford for July.

The will of the late Secretary Grosham was probated at Chicago.

TO REMOVE STAINS.

Useful Facts To Know During the Fruit Season.

The many stains which come upon the table linen and the summer dresses of the children are a constant source of annoyance to the housekeeper, and as these become permanent disfigurements if left upon the goods when they are washed, it is necessary to know the immediate remedy in order to deal with them at once. A list of the most common stains with the treatment which will remove each is a convenient clipping to paste into a fly leaf of the cook book, or other place of ready reference.

Fruit stains, when fresh, may be removed by pouring boiling water through the stained portion until the stained spot disappears.

Old fruit stains may be removed with oxalic acid. Wash the stained portion in the acid till clear; rinse at once in rain water, as the acid will break the fabric if left upon it. Now wet the spot in ammonia and give a final rinsing.

Grass stains should be rubbed thoroughly with molasses and then washed out as usual. Another treatment is to rub with alcohol then wash in water.

Rust and ink stains should be rubbed with juice of lemon and the spot then covered with salt and the cloth placed in the sun. If this treatment does not serve to remove the stain, or if the fabric is colored and so cannot be treated with the lemon juice, oxalic acid may be used as for old fruit stains. Still another treatment is to apply a mixture of two parts tartar and one part powdered alum; this latter is good for a variety of stains which fall under other methods.

Ink that is freshly spilt upon a carpet should be covered with coarse or common salt or Indian meal. If the stain is not absorbed rub with lemon juice.

Mildew is often a very stubborn thing to get rid of. Cut ordinary soap into shavings and cook it to a paste with rain water; spread the paste upon the spot, scatter upon it finely powdered potash and spread the fabric upon the grass for twenty-four hours. Wash in rain water and in all ordinary cases the spot will have disappeared. If it is not entirely gone, repeat the process. The same treatment is effective in the case of wine or fruit stains.

Wagon grease, pitch or tar may be removed by spreading lard upon the spot, rubbing it well in and washing out as usual. This kind of stain upon silk may be removed by rubbing with a mixture of equal parts of oil of turpentine and ether until all impurities seem removed, then cover the spot with Fuller's earth or French chalk, cover with blotting paper and press with a hot iron. Repeat this until the spot entirely disappears.

Tea, coffee and undoubtedly cocoa stains, even those which have been recently washed, may be rubbed in oxalic water. If the fabric stained be white, if otherwise the color will be bleached. Take an half-pint of the oxalic water to a quart of clear water and let stained portion of cloth soak in it for several hours, then rinse thoroughly in three waters.

Colors which have been changed by the application of acids may be restored by sponging with chloroform or ammonia, while colors changed by alkalies may be given an acid treatment.

Profane Use of an Echo.

Visitors to the Pantheon in Paris will remember the wonderful echo in the crypt which repeats a lengthy phrase after the guide. In former years, it was while they were still under its spell that they took their departure and the guide his pourboire. In those days the echo was made to declare that one might traverse the universe without meeting anything equal to it. Now the order of things seems to be changed. Since the death of the President, his tomb appears to possess a higher interest, for the echo make the announcement, "And now, ladies and gentlemen, we will proceed to inspect the monuments of Victor Hugo and M. Carnot." In view of the approaching commemoration of M. Carnot's death a Paris Journal protests against the continuance of this custom. The pantheon, it declares, is not a museum, but a neropolis. In Westminster Abbey, Parisians are reminded, all visitors speak below their breath, and the guides impart their information in an undertone.—Westminster Gazette.

HORSE AND TRACK.

Robert J. won the free-for-all race in 2:13, 2:10 and 2:08 at Minneapolis.

John H. Geary 2:08½ will make his first start of the year at La Crosse, Wis., this week.

Dallas, 2:11, broke down while working out at McKee's, Texas, Pa., and it is doubtful if he will ever start training again.

Bert Van Every won second money with Zella last week at Lexington. He won two heats, best time 2:20. Vanly won the race.

The drivers at Terre Haute, Ind., say Fred S. Moody by Guy Wilkes is the best two-year-old trotter ever brought across the mountains.

Jo Patchen, 2:04, conditioned to those who saw him at Des Moines, Iowa, will be a better horse than ever by the time the Grand Circuit opens.

George Fuller has sold the bay stallion Commodore Porter 2:13 by Nutwood, out of Rachel Ray, to W. Bailey of Louisville, Ky., for $3,000.

Prince Edna won the 2:17 trot at Lexington on July 4th. Best time 2:10½. The Prince won it easily and will likely take a mark below 2:10 this season.

Lord Clinton 2:08½ will not be raced this year. "Thak" Hills tried him at Lansing and found that the handsome black gelding was not in form for Grand Circuit racing.

Lady Wilton, the filly that made a record of 2:13½ at St. Joe, Mo., last week, is out of Lemondie, 2:27½, by Kentucky Prince, 3:11, and is a sister to Louisa, 2:08½. She is owned by Marcus Daly, Hamilton, Mont.

C. J. Hanlin says that he is willing to match Robert J. against any pacer in the world for any amount. Here is an opportunity for the owners of Jo Patchen or John H. Geary to have another tilt with the little gelding by Hartford.

Alix 2:03½ trotted an exhibition mile at St. Joseph on July 4th. She trotted the mile in 2:07½, and finished in a shower of rain. It was a great mile and shows that the trotter that beats the little mare this season will have to go some.

Angie D. reduced two world's records at Toledo Tuesday, when she won the 2:12 pace. In the first heat she cut the half-mile track record to 2:10, and when she won the money in 2:10½, 2:14, 2:13, she also paced the three fastest miles ever stepped over a half-mile ring. They averaged 2:12½.

It is claimed that W. J. Andrews has a faster horse than Maseott in the four-year-old pacer Stately by Hammer. He will make his Western debut at Windsor next week and the Eastern scribbles feel that he will sweep round the track at that town in 2:08 or thereabouts.

Col. J. S. Taylor, of St. Louis, Mo., owner of Jo Patchen 2:04, has been a great admirer of Strathberry 2:06½ ever since the race which those stallions fought last year. It is said that Col. Taylor tried to buy Strathberry last fall, and thinks that 2:06½ is no measure of his speed.

The trotting meeting at Lexington last week was a big success. Secretary Tipton, with his usual energy worked up a good list of horses for the trots. Ed Tipton deserves credit, not only for the good sport furnished but also in giving our horsemen a chance to try their horses before starting on the various circuits.

Monthly Crop Report.

I was unable on the 1st of June to make a very favorable report for wheat. The per cent was given at 83.1, which was a fair showing. Since that time the fly and rust have been pretty general over the State, and in some counties the smut has been very bad, and from one observation and from talking to farmers who have threshed their wheat, I don't think the yield will be over a half crop, and quite a number of correspondents write that the crop is very inferior—that it will grade very low.

Two correspondents from the county of Woodford agree as to the short crop; one says "that the wheat was but in some places by the frost, rust, and fly and will not grade well," the other says "in addition to fly, I now report rust." I think 75 per cent will be the full amount of an inferior quality. I could mention a number of counties like the above—in fact there are very few good reports. Those few counties making good reports will make the average higher than it really should be from the general tone of the correspondents. The correspondent from Anderson County thinks that the average from the county will not be more than five or six bushels per acre. The correspondent from Tripp thinks that the average weight of the wheat of his county will not weigh over fifty-five pounds to the measured bushel. The average of all the reports is placed at 79.8 per cent.

CORN.

The corn crop has improved very much since my last report. All the correspondents agree that the prospects are very flattering. The correspondents from Richy says: "Notwithstanding the ravages from worms early in the season, the outlook for cereals and root crops for this season is very promising, in fact very nearly if not quite up to a general average." The growth of corn this season is very uneven. Some of it is very small and some of it ready to lay by—caused by having so much replant corn—having been planted as many as three times, but all looking well and doing well, and where the ground has been well worked, the rains in the last few days will push it forward very rapidly. The condition July 1, is placed at 93.5 per cent. Acreage compared to full crop is placed at 98.8.

WHEAT.

I am never able to get a very full report on rye. So many counties are not raising it and much of it being sown for pasturage during the winter and plowed under in the spring. The reports I have are more favorable than that of wheat. The condition is placed at 94 per cent.

OATS.

In giving my own observation that I did not think that the correspondent put the per cent on wheat low enough, I am just the reverse on oats; do not think they put the per cent high enough. I don't think I have ever seen a better crop. I have noted particularly in riding by a number of fields the absence of black or blighted heads—have not seen one. I think the correspondents from Oldham and Cumberland, in placing the per cent at 120 is not too high. The correspondents from Woodford and Scott place it 125. Some few counties place it as low as 90. The general resume places the average at 96.7 per cent.

BARLEY.

It never takes long to get the average condition of barley so few counties raising it. The average of those reporting it is placed at 92 per cent.

SORGHUM.

I inquired as to the average condition of sorghum. From the answers it is not as successfully grown as in former years. The general impression seems to be that, through the fall and early winter, or until it freezes, it is fine food, but after it freezes it is not much good. The acreage, compared to a full crop, is placed at 92 per cent.

POTATOES.

The reports about the potato crop vary greatly; some very good and some very indifferent. The acreage, compared to a full crop, is placed at 97.4 per cent. The average condition July 1, is placed at 88 per cent.

WOOL.

The wool clipped is placed at 89 per cent.

PASTURES.

There was very great complaint about pastures; in fact they had commenced to burn from the sparks from the railroads. Meadows in many places have suffered from the want of moisture, but they will be very much improved from the late rains. The average condition, July 1st, was placed at 80 per cent.

APPLES.

From the correspondents report the apple crop will be very large. The condition, July 1st, was placed at 97 per cent.

PEACHES.

Not enough counties reporting peaches to make a report.

GRAPES.

The average condition of grapes, July 1st, was placed at 77 per cent.

THE PERIODOT.

A Precious Stone Which at the Present Time is in High Favor.

A precious stone which at the present time is very valuable, because it is the stone of the hour, is the Periodot or "evening emerald." It is a lovely stone, with its exquisite shades of translucent green, the best suggestion of whose hue is the effect produced by looking at the light through a delicate leaf. Jewellers say that the periodot is a species of olive, of the same class as the beryl, aqua-marine, and the topaz, and that it is in fact the ancient "topazion," otherwise known as Chrysolite. It is found in Egypt, Ceylon and Brazil, good crystal being exceedingly rare. Of the various shades of olive-green, leaf, pistachio, or leaf, the clear leaf green is the most admired.

Of all these precious stones the periodot is the most difficult to polish. The final touch is given on a copper wheel moistened with sulphuric acid, a process which requires the greatest care, for if slipped into the acid the stone has the peculiarity of becoming soluble. Sometimes it is cut in a rose form, or like a carbuncle, but it is better and more valuable when worked in small shape, as the brilliance is thus increased.

Owing to the quality of softness the periodot has been considered of little value, but now that it is the fashion, fabulous prices are charged for the stone.—Montreal Star.

Louisville's Tragedies on the Glorious Fourth.

Policeman Edward Byrne, of Louisville, was shot and instantly killed on the evening of the 4th. He had arrested a negro, who in order to control, he had clubbed, and when tending him from a saloon was shot and instantly killed.

Will Thomas, colored, in Louisville was handling a pistol which he thought was not loaded, and it went off, the ball passing through the right breast of Will Powell, also colored.

Blash Nesby, colored, snatched a pistol from the hands of Jerry Tyler, colored, and ran away. Tyler told him to stop or he would shoot him, when Nesby leveled his pistol and fired, the ball penetrating Tyler's right eye, killing him instantly.

Josh Brown, a watchman at a distillery, who riled with his wife and because his children played with him to death, became more infuriated and seized his pistol, late in the evening. His nineteen-year-old son and shot him three times through the body, killing him almost instantly. It was a most brutal murder.

Many young men who have completed the business course in Prof. Goodwin's school are now holding positions of prominence in this and other cities. At the several colleges where the pupils from this school have entered they have invariably taken that high stand that ensures all who go from him to such institutions a flattering reception. The first hour men of the colleges where his boys have gone have, again and again, been one of those who have enjoyed his efficient teaching. We know of no school where a boy can get better training than with Prof. Goodwin.

In response to a telegram from Tatham Springs, Washington County, saying that Mr. Charles Dwy, deputy County Clerk of this county, was very dangerously ill his brother, Mr. Bruce Dwy, left for that place Monday afternoon. Mr. Dwy has been in very delicate health for several years and such a message was no surprise to his friends. We hope that he will rally from his present condition and will yet be restored to permanent health. Later—a subsequent telegram says Mr. Dwy has rallied to some extent.

IT IS NOT PARADISE BUT—

If you have some cash to spare and are willing to work, financial independence cannot be more surely secured than by buying a few acres of irrigated land in Salt River Valley.

This valley is in Southern Arizona, and is noted for its fine climate, its abundant fruits and superior semitropical fruits and superior climate. Horticulturists say that greater profits can be realized here from oranges and grapes than in Florida or California.

Physicians assure that the warm, dry, bracing climate excels in healing qualities Italy's balneated air. The great blizzard of 1895 did not blight the tenderest leaf in this protected spot.

To get there, take Santa Fe Route to Phoenix, A. T., via Prescott and the new line, S. F. & P. Ry. Address Geo. T. Gump, 417 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, O., for illustrated folders. They tersely tell the story of a remarkable country. Actual results are given—no guesswork or hearsay.

Overcome by life's sorrows.
The man with kidney disease may find relief from dropsy or skin eruptions, or the woman with kidney disease, or the child with kidney disease, or the lame back or fullness about the eyes, or much on the face. People often find themselves in the situation as aptly figured by the Hon. John Allen of Miss, the wit of the San Congress. Here is his celebrated rhyme "letty" on the floor of the House to the great amusement of that body.

"Where's Wanny runs the post office And Levi runs the bar, While baby runs the White House And—where's I here we are."

Well, it's worth the afflicted. To avoid those ills, or to cure them, Dr. Pease's Kidney and Bladder Cure will not disappoint. The Rev. A. J. Mearns, late preaching Elder, Grove City, Pa., Apr. 4, 1892, writes: "For 18 years I suffered with kidney difficulty and used only 3 bottles of Dr. Pease's Kidney and Bladder Cure. I have had less headache in the last 10 years than I formerly had in 10 months. I feel entirely cured." Money refunded if satisfaction not given. Trial bottles free to-day. It means happiness and prolonged life.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure by local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
